

NICOLA BAYLEY

THE TYGER VOYAGE (2013, 280 x 240)

TEXT BY RICHARD ADAMS

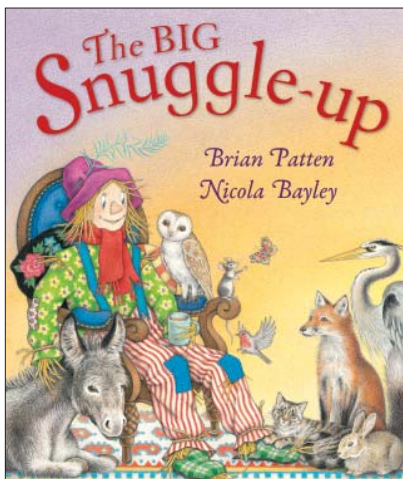

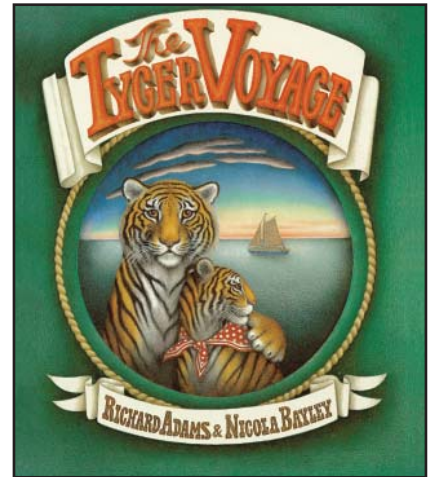

A gentleman tyger and his son set sail from Victorian England into the timeless unknown. Together they roam across the seas, through jungles, past ice-covered mountains and erupting volcanoes and many more unexpected hazards along the way.

'Bayley's pictures are characteristically painstaking and gentle, softly lit, finely worked and pretty.' - Sunday Times

'The pictures are full of fascinating details, and her tigers are beautiful sensuous creatures.' - Daily Telegraph

'Lively narrative ballad.' - The Observer

'Full of charm and detail, there are elements of Rousseau and Dali and woodcuts and the Books of Hours.' - Times Literary Supplement

THE BIG SNUGGLE-UP (2011, 280 x 240)

TEXT BY BRIAN PATTEN

It all started with a scarecrow coming into the house out of the snow, bringing with him the mouse that lived up his sleeve. But it wasn't only these two who were looking for a warm place to snuggle up!

'A joy to read aloud . . . The fine and delicate detail in each of the spreads, holds the eye and makes one want to linger to explore, revisit and enjoy them in their own right.' - Books for Keeps

'A great bedtime story for the under-fives.' - Daily Express

'The beautiful and detailed pictures and the rhyming text will make this a pleasure to read aloud to a small child. A delightful choice.' - The Spectator

CAN I COME TOO? (2013, 280 x 240)

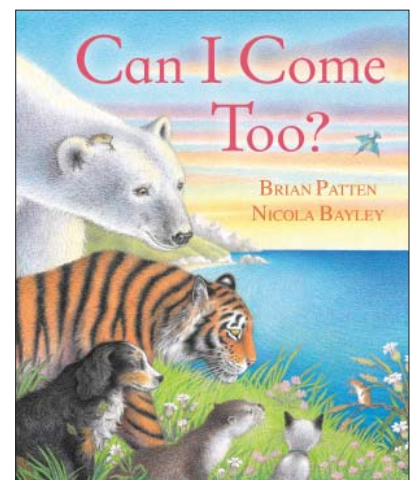

TEXT BY BRIAN PATTEN

A very small mouse decided it wanted to have a very big adventure. "I'll go and find the biggest creature in the world," it thought. Along the way it meets many different animals and when at last they find the biggest creature, the little mouse feels a great sense of achievement.

'Sheer delight!' - Amanda Craig, The Times

'A truly lovely book!' - The Independent on Sunday

'A very endearing read that animal and nature lovers will adore . . . A classic in its own right and a treasure for any young reader.' - EYE
